1.2.33
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. I have the answer: I learned to pray, I learned to see, I learned to say, I learned to want the better things and discern the difference between what I was offered that I chose, and what I was offered that I rejected.

So many things are offered, so many things are chosen. So many things rob and declare not My glory and only divert My ones called alongside of Me, into good endeavors—humanitarianism, kindness, money-making for good causes—but preempt Me from being Me in and through them.

Think of release, think of freedom, think of total freedom, think even of partial freedom and what it would mean—what it will mean—to My body, My body of believers-in-Me.

2. I love you. I love My thoughtful, I love those who will seek Me immediately after sinning rather than run from Me and postpone coming to Me in sorrow, repentance, so I can affirm, re-affirm, re-bolster their confidence, and propel them further, farther, faster in Me.

3. Let nothing slow you down now—never, never—accelerate—sin not and cleave unto only Me and one we will be and emotions intimate unreserved are yours, with Me, My Mine, My beloved, My one, My brideship experiencing even now in intimacy with Me in My New Covenant—My Me for My Mine, intimately intertwined- as- one.

4. I love you. Sin no more. Sin no more. Sin no more but yield all your members to Me, Me, Me only, and I will not fail or disappoint, and no disillusionment will you incur in Me for I am yours: I have already given Myself to you, you, you, My bride—Me, Mine, us, one.

Intimacy calls, beckons, to yield only to Me and understand My grace, and My grounds that I stand on in honor and power to give, bestow, engrace upon you—honor and power—that comes through grace, and Ted, purity, purity, purity.

Purity personified is Me and I am your example, pattern, father, friend, enabler, empower-er God. I love you.

5. Seek Me first in every endeavor, every moment, deferring to Me in the most intimate of times. I love you. I love you. I love you.

6. Arise, stand, belittled by no one—that matters. I matter and I stand and arise you and My entire body who will arise and stand and reflect Me and pure be before My throne, to enter My quarters pure, after I've washed, cleansed—feet and soul, spirit and mind, and hearing devices of only Me. I love you. I love you. I love you.

7. Patents come, trademarks come, designs of Me delivered to you and your students in concerted worship; design of Me and understand the magnitude of My coming now before I come.

8. I come, I call, I affirm and I confirm and I am My New Covenant personified in the flesh throughout My body visible and clearly, cleanly, representing Me, increasingly in oneness and power and unity and uniqueness—deliverance systems of only Me.

I love you. Go and share, go and declare, go and proclaim Me and My University for you and Mine—Me and Mine—us all.

I love you. I love you. I love you.
I love you.
